

JODHAMAL YOUTH CONCLAVE 2022

The purpose of Jodhamal Youth Conclave is to implement the best practices of collaboration, cooperation and constructive debate irrespective of an individual's race, gender, political or sexual orientation, age, or nationality. To that end, all JYC participants agree to adhere to the following Code of Conduct.

Discipline:

- Delegates must display courteous behaviour towards Executive Board Members and others assisting in the committee. Anyone exhibiting uncivil behaviour would be expelled from the committee, at the discretion of the chair.
- Delegates are expected to maintain the decorum of the committee and use parliamentary language at all times. Any display of profanity would result in immediate expulsion.
- Delegates must refrain from using music or audio recordings during debate or lobbying sessions.
- Delegates should be able to appreciate the ideas and opinions of fellow delegates.
- Delegates are expected to be in the committee rooms 10 minutes prior to the stipulated time in the schedule.
- JYC'22 strictly follows a no smoking, no drinking policy. Any delegate found consuming these substances will be immediately expelled from the conference along with his/her school delegation.

• JYC'22 will not tolerate any instances of Harassment, discrimination based on race, gender, sexual orientation, caste, creed, religion, nationality etc. further if anyone feels that they have encountered any such incident, especially sexual, or discrimination, resulting in malicious work environment, must report the incident to the Equity Committee or any member of the secretariat. To which the secretariat will take appropriate action.

Expectations:

- Delegates are expected to have a basic knowledge of the UNA-USA rules of procedure. (the special ROP of committees like AIPPM and Lok Sabha will be shared in the committee itself for the delegates convenience)
- At all costs, delegates must meet the deadlines for position papers and arrive on time for committee sessions.
- Delegates are requested to conclude their speeches within the time limit set by the committee. This will ensure maximum participation and avert delays in sessions.
- Delegates are requested to consistently advocate their country's interests and represent the policies of the portfolio assigned to them.
- For any other query, please feel free to contact your chairperson through the committee-specific email ID provided on the website with the Chair's address.

Dress code:

- The dress code to be followed for JYC'22 is as follows:
30th September: Indian Formals
1st October: Indian Formals
2nd October: Western Formals
- Please note that short skirts, off shoulder tops, shorts and cut-sleeves tops are NOT ALLOWED.
- Delegates must be dressed in proper formal attire at all times.
- Anyone found violating the dress code would be barred from entering the conference sessions, until she/he complies to the same.

Photography:

- As mentioned in the indemnity form, JYC retains the right to monitor committee session and use the pictures and videos as per their discretion. The event maybe published on the internet and print media and the delegates must consent to being photographed in the committee session.
- Without Jodhamal Public School's prior approval, no participating school may publish any materials pertaining to committee meetings.

Plagiarism Policy:

- Position papers and all documents pertaining to the committee are acceptable for plagiarism up to 25%.
- A violation of this rule could result in a suspension from committee meetings and disqualification from receiving an award.

Electronics Policy:

- Delegates are not allowed to use the internet while the formal committee is in session.
- No headphones or ear buds are to be used during committee time.

Awards:

- The number of awards would be decided depending on the committee size.
- Delegates would be evaluated based on well structured marking criteria formulated by the executive board.
- Awards are decided at the discretion of the Executive Board. Their decision in this matter and otherwise would be final and binding.

Role of faculty advisors :

- Faculty Advisors are responsible for ensuring that their student delegation follows the terms and conditions.
- Faculty Advisors must also ensure the punctuality of their individual delegation.
- During the conference, faculty advisors must remain in the campus.
- Faculty advisors need to submit the final details of the participants attending the conference at the registration desk

